Craving experiences?

Lilienberg - a place with history

Villa LILIENBERG with a view over Untersee was built in 1840 on a wonderfully situated estate above Untersee by the Prussian Baroness Caroline von Waldau and passed in 1848 to the Constance Baroness Betty von Fingerlin, a cousin of the later Emperor Napoleon III.

Also back then, LILIENBERG was used as an inspiring meeting place, where famous musicians, among others, came as house guests.

The decisive tea visit of the Reist couple took place on 21st April 1985 - as guests of Klara and Paul Bigliardi. Walter Reist, who had wanted to build a meeting place for entrepreneurs for some time, and Dr. Paul Bigliardi quickly agreed on a deal and sealed the purchase contract with a handshake.

The Lilienberg Entrepreneurs' Forum was inaugurated on 7th April 1989 as a meeting place for business, politics and society.

Celebrate & Enjoy

At LILIENBERG, enjoyment and culinary diversity are part of the culture. The creative cuisine will inspire you too. In the restaurant and on the sun terrace we serve culinary delights in a cosy atmosphere. From business lunches to the a la carte selection of Mediterranean-French inspired cuisine - pleasurable moments are guaranteed.

The fantastic view of the beautiful park and Untersee - as far as to the monastery island of Reichenau - promises pure relaxation.

Founded in 1906, the Napoleon Museum Thurgau, Arenenberg Castle and Park, is the only German-language museum (open until 5 pm) on Napoleonic history. As it was then, it is still an open, hospitable house where visitors will feel like the guests of Queen Hortense, Napoleon III's mother. www.napoleonmuseum.tg.ch

The abundant Au - natural paradise, UNESCO World Heritage Site, land of milk and honey, place of well-being - the Island of Reichenau offers a wide range of possibilities. The well-signposted cycling and hiking trails offer a panoramic view of the landscape and the lake in many places. The three Romanesque churches of St. Peter and Paul, St. Mary's and Mark's Minster and St. George's and the museum provide an insight into the history of the world heritage of the monastery island. From a culinary point of view, the vegetables of the Reichenau cooperative and the fish from fresh catches are the centre of attention everywhere here.
